III. MEETINGS

A. Publication of Dates

The schedule of General Meetings, Special Events, and Board Meetings will be published annually in the Yearbook. Additional meetings may be called as provided for in Article IV of the Bylaws.

B. Electronic Meetings

At the President's discretion, the Board may be asked to make decisions or vote on motions by e-mail. All responses should be addressed to the entire Board, and a majority must approve any decision unless a two-thirds vote is required. The President will notify Board members of the outcome. Actions and voting results will be recorded as minutes and filed accordingly by the Secretary.

C. Minutes

1. The Secretary will prepare minutes of all meetings where business is transacted. This includes the General and Special Meetings, Board Meetings, workshops and planning sessions, and meetings held via e-mail.
2. Board Meeting Minutes: Draft minutes will be sent electronically to Board members for review and correction within two weeks of the meeting. Board members will submit any corrections to the Secretary. Minutes will be declared approved as published unless additional changes are made at the next meeting, then signed by the President and Secretary.
3. General Meeting Minutes: The President will appoint a 3-member committee to review and approve or amend minutes from these meetings. The minutes should be signed and dated by the Secretary and the chair of the committee. At the next General Meeting the President will announce that committee approved the minutes and that copies are available upon request.
4. The Secretary will maintain the approved, signed and dated minutes in a binder. At the May Meeting all minutes for the previous year will be turned over to the President who is responsible for placing them in the Friends official records. Minutes should be in printed format as well as an electronic copy so they may be stored on the Friends computer.

D. Resolutions

A Resolution is used when the motion is of great importance or is very long. A Resolution includes the reasons for the motion as well as the actual action that is being proposed.

Resolutions follow a certain format and are filed in chronological order at the front of the Minutes binder.

E. Agenda

The President will prepare an agenda for all meetings. Board members may request an item to be listed on the agenda by contacting the President at least one week prior to the scheduled meeting date. The President will provide the Board an agenda, Treasurer's report, and minutes of the previous meeting at least two days prior to the next Board Meeting.

IV. COMMITTEES

A. The President may form ad hoc committees and appoint their members unless otherwise specified in the Bylaws. The President will specify the frequency and type of reports to be made to the Board. An ad hoc committee automatically ceases to exist when its work is completed and the final report is received.

B. In the course of committee duties, there may be occasions to write letters, devise or revise forms, or create other material that will be distributed under the name of Friends of the Rockwall County Library. Such material will be reviewed and approved by the President and/or President-Elect before it is disseminated.

Note: This does not refer to informal notecards, messages of condolence, internal committee correspondence or e-mails between individuals.
